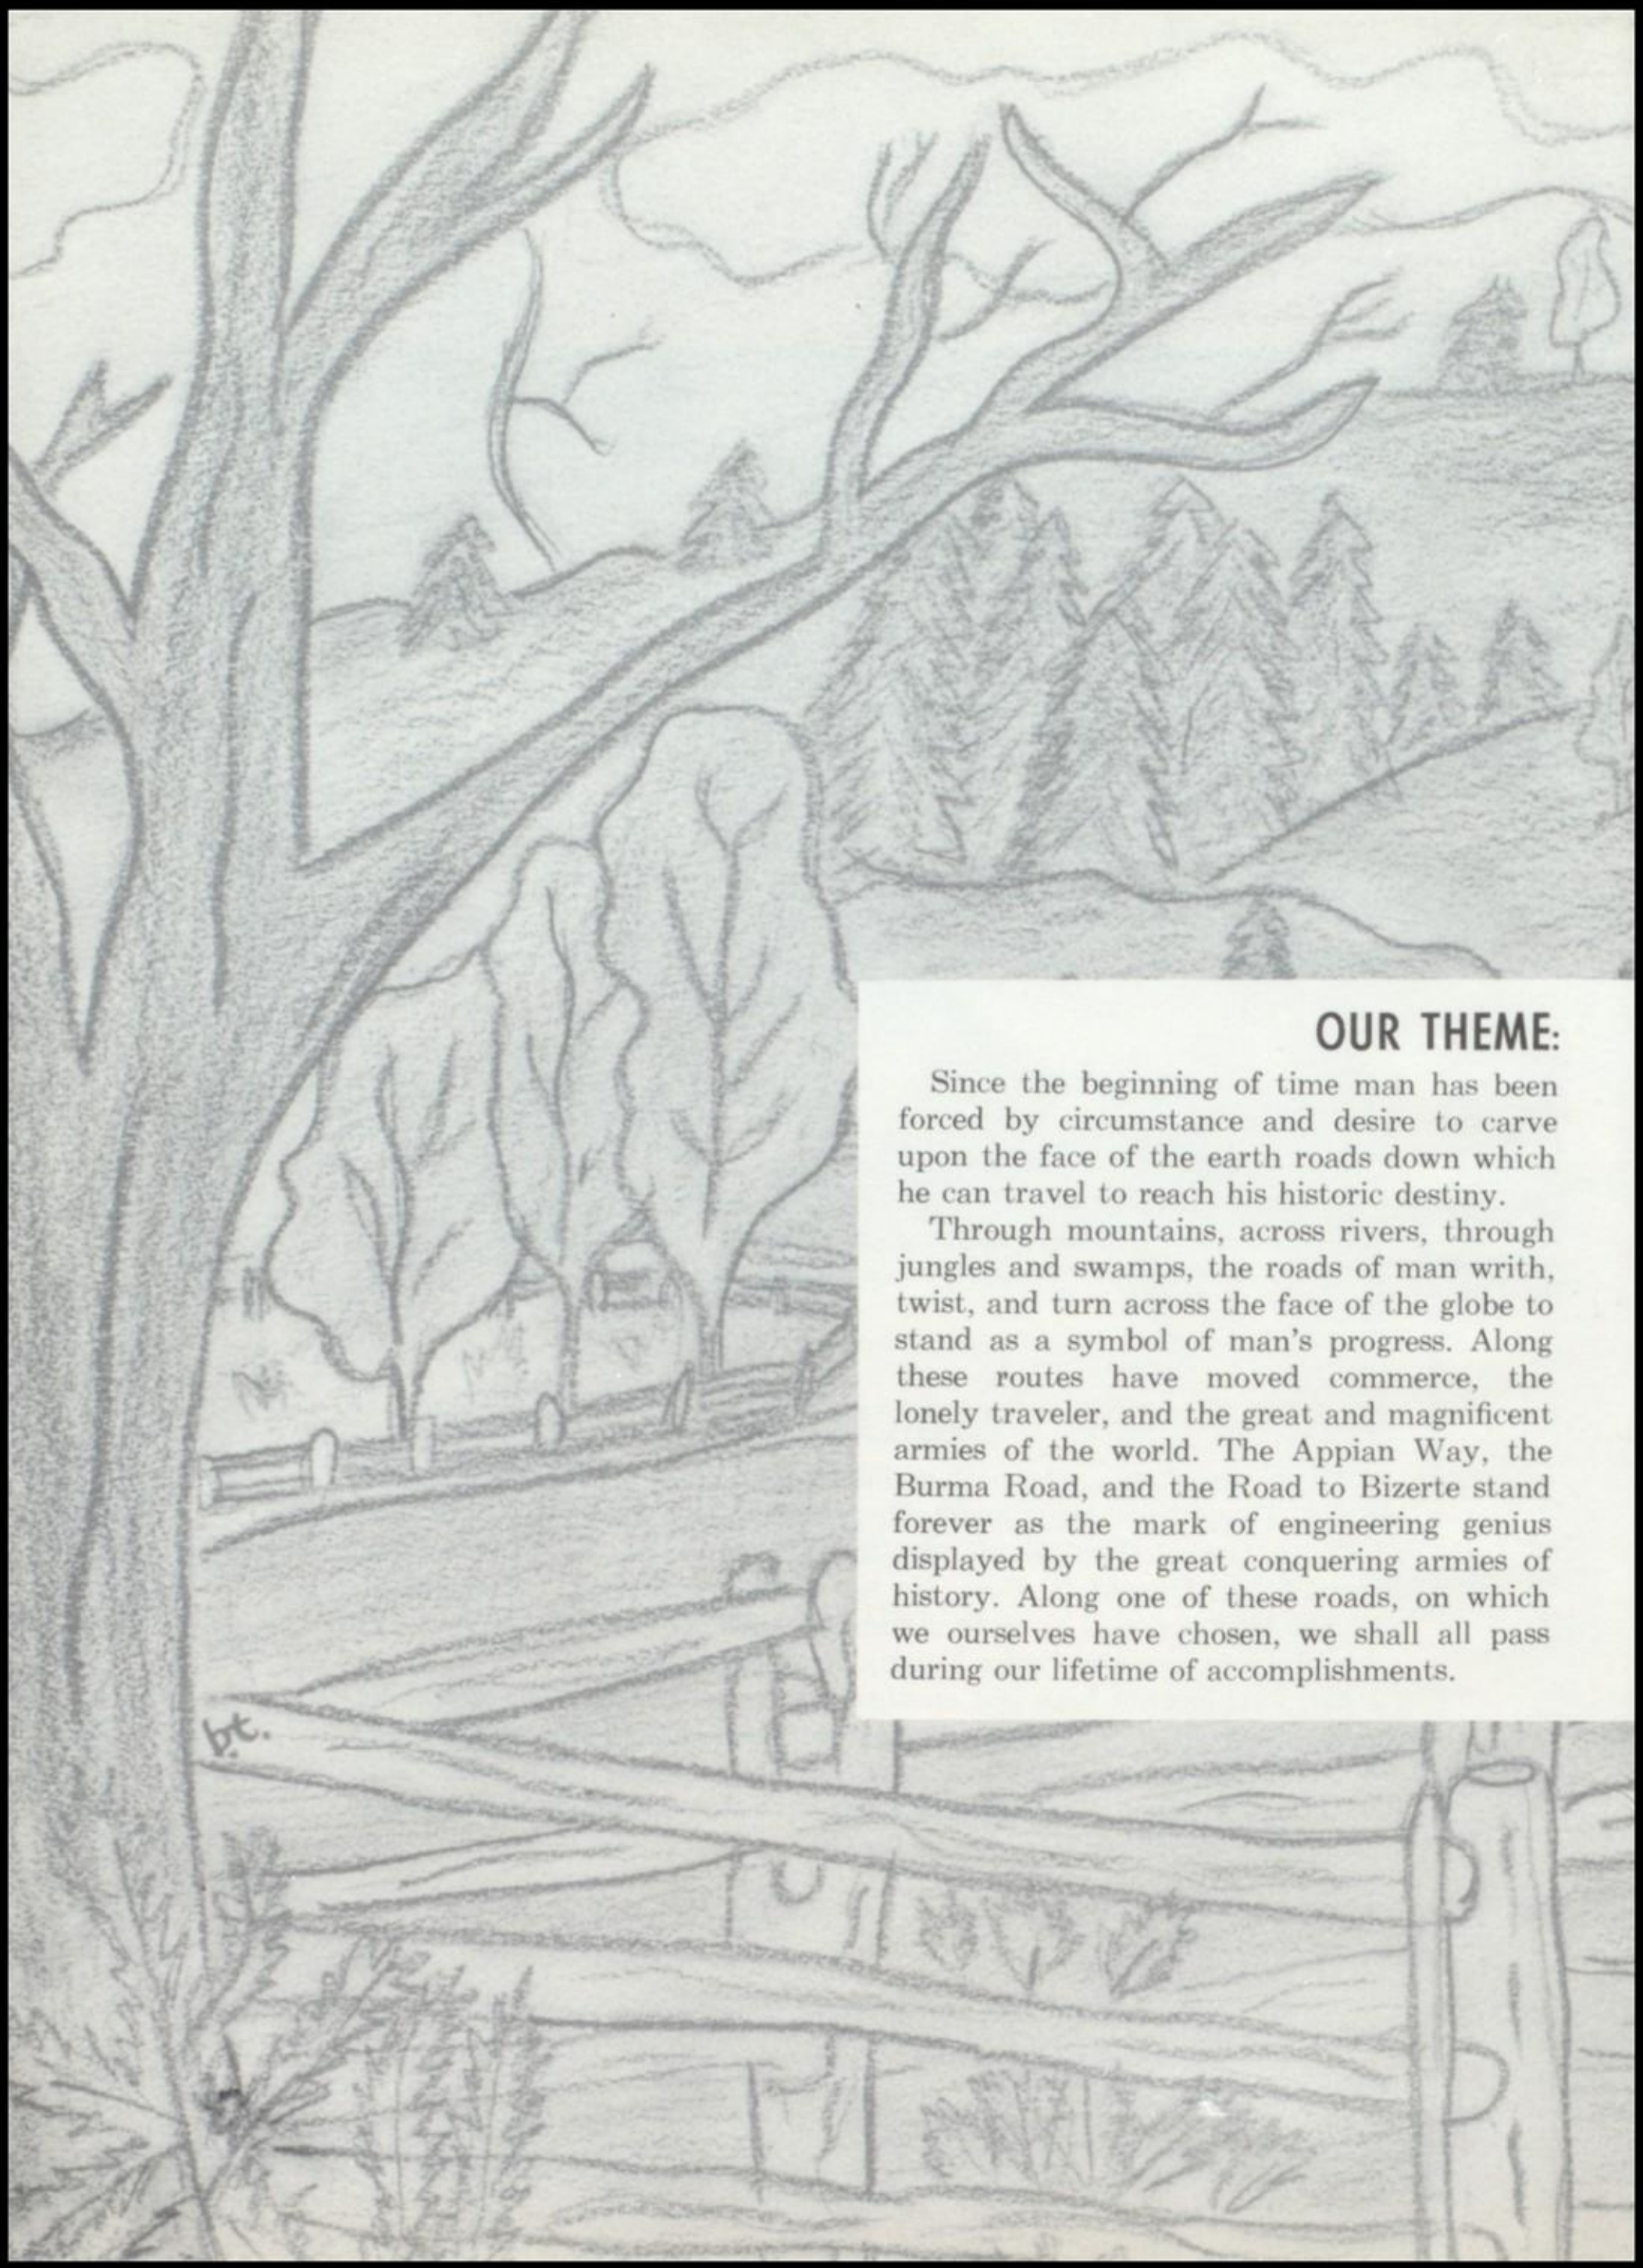
DEDICATION

As we travel along the path of life, we are confronted with many obstacles. There have been many people who helped us overcome these obstacles. One of these people who will always remain in our minds and hearts is Mr. Donald R. Poet. He has helped us become better citizens and has been a friend to us in a time of need. He has helped the entire school by coaching the Junior Varsity Basketball Team.

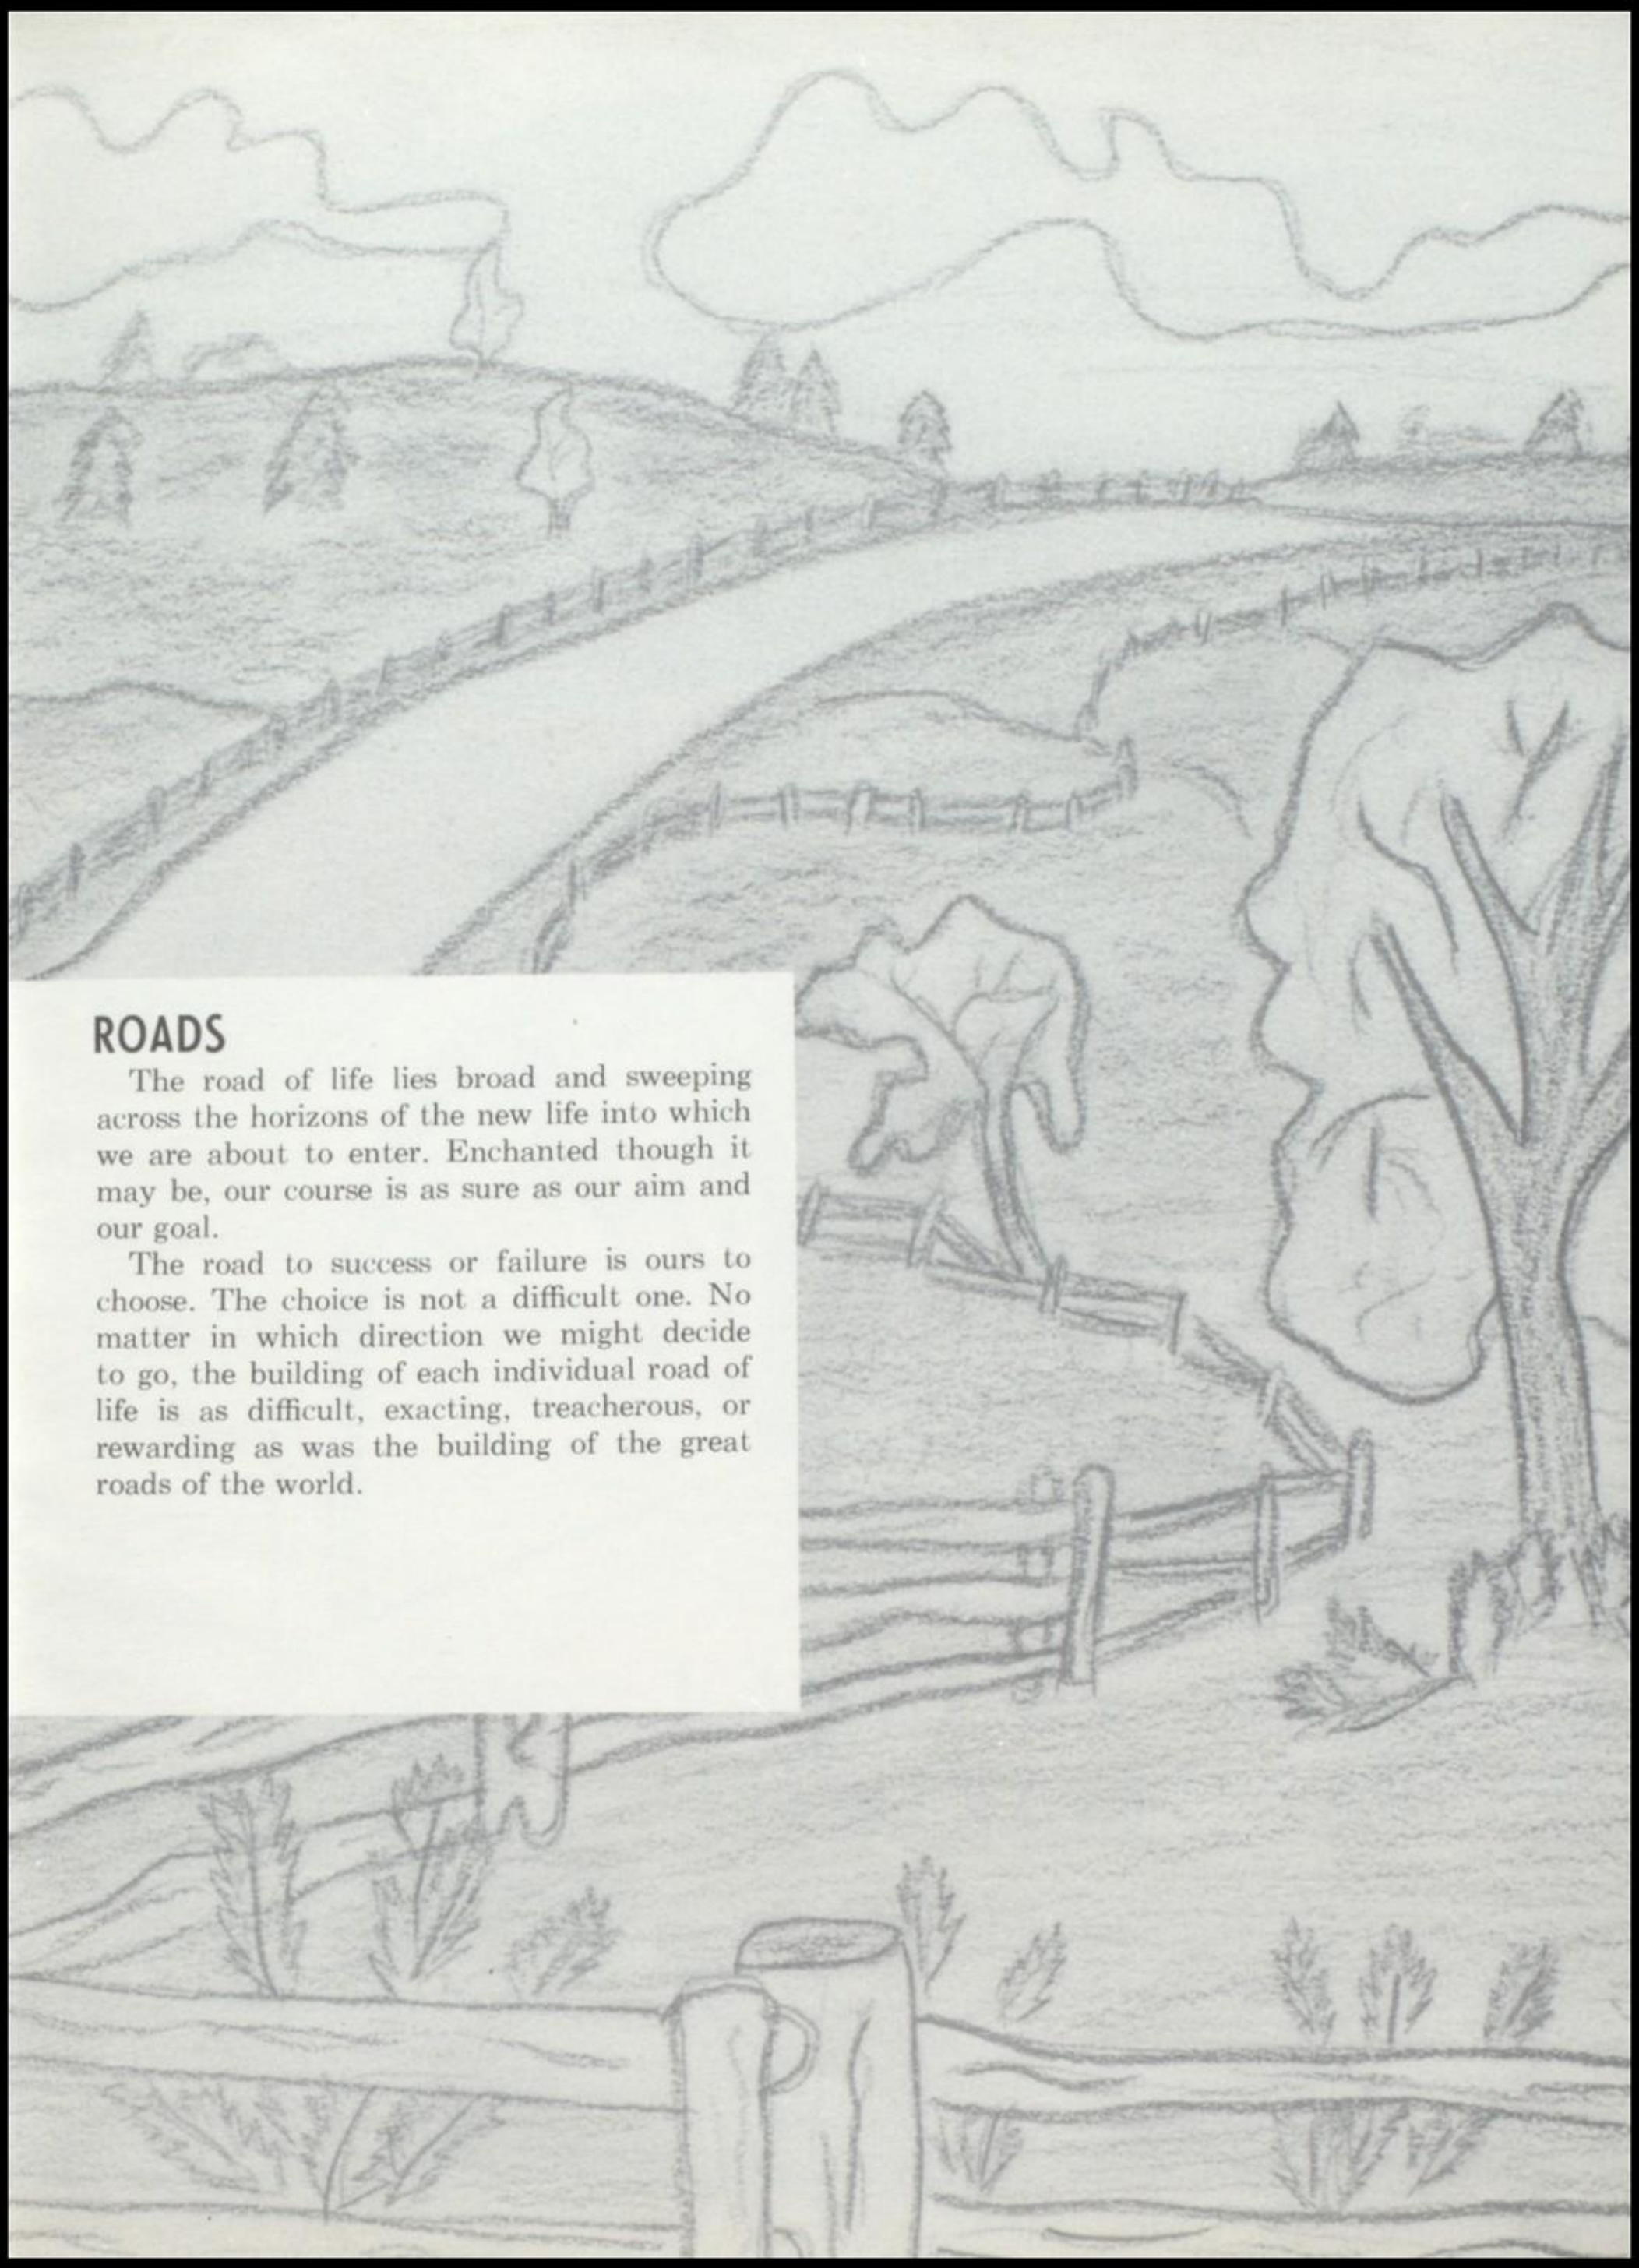
Mr. Poet has not been just another teacher to us, but a friend who has gained the respect and admiration of each member of the Class of '62. For these reasons we the Class of '62 hereby dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Donald R. Poet. Through this we hope to show a portion of our appreciation for everything he has done for us.



OUR THEME:

Since the beginning of time man has been forced by circumstance and desire to carve upon the face of the earth roads down which he can travel to reach his historic destiny.

Through mountains, across rivers, through jungles and swamps, the roads of man writh, twist, and turn across the face of the globe to stand as a symbol of man's progress. Along these routes have moved commerce, the lonely traveler, and the great and magnificent armies of the world. The Appian Way, the Burma Road, and the Road to Bizerte stand forever as the mark of engineering genius displayed by the great conquering armies of history. Along one of these roads, on which we ourselves have chosen, we shall all pass during our lifetime of accomplishments.



ROADS

The road of life lies broad and sweeping across the horizons of the new life into which we are about to enter. Enchanted though it may be, our course is as sure as our aim and our goal.

The road to success or failure is ours to choose. The choice is not a difficult one. No matter in which direction we might decide to go, the building of each individual road of life is as difficult, exacting, treacherous, or rewarding as was the building of the great roads of the world.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE

Our sincere congratulations to the 1962 graduating class of Central High School from the members of the Central Union District School Board.

Upon your graduation from high school, you have completed one important part of your formal education. Some of you will enter college; some will seek technical training; others will seek gainful employment. Whatever you choose to do, please do it without the feeling of compulsion. Strive for a greater effort to do just a little bit more than is required, and to do better work than it takes just to get by. If you do this, you can be sure that the rewards of your endeavors will be greater.

We wish you great success with the thought that by having a part in your education, we have not only helped make the security and destiny of your future; but we have also helped our own futures through the services that will be rendered by you.

Supervising Principal

It is with pleasure that I congratulate the Class of 1962. I regret I do not know each of you as individual students.

In your years at Central High School you have been a member of a large as well as a small student body. During the six years you have been in high school, the faculty and administration has endeavored to prepare you for future life by giving to you as much knowledge as possible.

This is a changing world and you are responsible to re-educate yourself, to survive and thrive in this changing world.

The efforts of many persons have been collectively aimed at assisting you in achieving your objective through curricular and co-curricular experiences in school.

It is my sincere hope that we have provided a basic educational foundation upon which you may build a future for yourself and your fellow man, for it is generally conceded that education is the greatest constructive force at the disposal of democratic people for the solution of their problems.

Reason and judgment are the qualities of a leader.

William N. Craley, B.S., M.Ed.
Principal

The sages of old thundered out admonitions against prejudice, injustice, hypocrisy, cruelty, pride, greed, and hate. All of these lead nations, as well as individuals, to chaos. At the same time these sages were pleading for humility, justice, fairplay, love of God, and love of humanity.

I hope your experiences at Central will help you thunder out, as the sages of old, for integrity and character to help preserve the world and civilization.

Richard E. Walters, B.A., M.Ed.
Assistant Principal

You must meet the Challenge of the Sixties! Bigotry, provincialism, and ethnocentricity are indeed poor principles upon which to establish a sound pathway for your life. Rather, strive to pave the highway of your existence with the paving blocks of truth, morality, sincerity, and humility. Then the future will offer many lanes of pleasant and stimulating travel through which to map your journey.

SENIORS

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as far as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day,
Yet knowing how way leads on to way!
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

OUR SONG

We are changed by each contact we make in this life,
And; dear Central, the years we have spent
In the studies and pleasures afforded us here
Bore us upward as onward we went.
Fare thee well! As we now take our place in the world,
Our accomplishments all will reflect
The foundation we built in thy halls, Central High.
We'll salute you in fond retrospect.

Making flowers was the start of our float.

Our Queen Linda Wales, reigned over our last Homecoming.

JOURNEY'S END

The Class of 1962 is about to become history. We go with a certain eagerness, tempered with regret for all we leave behind us.

Our first peep into the majesty and mystery of Dear Old Central came, when as seventh graders we assembled for instructions, feeling apart from the rest of the school. Our seventh grade journey acquainted us with new subjects, many teachers, a maze of hallways and classrooms, clubs, plays, sports' contests, assemblies; and myriads of rules and regulations to remember—yes, we were properly introduced to this business of secondary education.

After three months of vacation we again took up the trail, an older and wiser troupe. And so we traveled on, marking our highway with bright roadsigns portraying parties, dances, holidays—and, of course, much hard work.

Tenth grade found us a much more serious group, as was proved by the weighty business sessions during class meetings. With Mike Lentz, our president; Dick Dehoff, our vice-president; Pam Strickler, our secretary; and George Sipe, our treasurer mapping our trip, we chose our class colors, green and white, and those "swift" class jackets and sweaters. And who could forget "Cupid's Hide-a-Way," our first dance? It was a swinging success.

Our wild lunch periods.

Our serious class meetings.

Junior days passed all too quickly. More than ever a part of the school, beginning to assume responsibilities of leadership, we finished the year with justified pride in ourselves as upper classmen. Highlighting the whole year was our class play, "Hill-Billy Weddin'." "Summer Memories" was a symphony of soft colors and pulsating music by the Links. Our thanks went to our class officers for guiding us on our tour: president—Mike Lentz, vice-president—Linda Wales, secretary—Kathy Lehigh, and treasurer—George Sipe.

Senior days—shortest, fullest, and best! We sped down the final stretch, crammed with the traffic of extra duties, testing programs, heavy schedules, and our not-to-be-forgotten yearbook. Along with those came the Senior Play—a serious one this time, "You, the Jury." Our Homecoming float won us a trophy; Jack, the donkey, pulling a much decorated surry, gave good advice: "Don't fool with Central." And our lovely Queen, Miss Linda Wales, reigned over the festivities. Our senior officers deserve medals for service beyond the call of duty: president—Don Simmons, vice-president—Judi Stebbins, secretary—Valerie Herbstritt, and treasurer—George Sipe. It was they who carried us through all the work of the long-to-be-remembered prom and senior class dance.

The final semester speeds us to the end. As one hundred and forty seniors seek new avenues of endeavors, we will long cherish the memories of our Alma Mater. Commencement was not an end for us; we look with eager expectancy toward journeys into fruitful territory.

Our class advisors: Mr. Krape, Mrs. Lehman and Mr. Kralowetz.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Edwin Emminger,
President

Robert Hykes,
Vice-President

For the past several years, the Student Council has been working to promote the general welfare of the student body. We might add that they have accomplished this very well under the fine leadership of Mr. Daniel Roser and Mr. Ronald Beckmeyer.

Our lovely homecoming assembly and parade, the well known school store, the overflowing lost and found department, the successful bundle days, the well planned handbook, and the many dances which hold happy memories for all of us are just a few of the countless activities brought forth by your Student Council. Did you know that Pia, Ulla, and our beloved Jenny were brought to Central through the many efforts of each member in Council?

Although we have had a hard working staff in Council this year, their success has been stimulated through the suggestions and cooperation of the student body.

As long as the students, the Student Council, and the administration work together as a team, bigger and better things can be achieved for Central High in future years.

Rochelle Seymour,
Treasurer

Bonita Bear,
Secretary

CENTRAL GOES DUTCH

Jenny Coumou

The only way I can express my gratitude is by saying "Thank you," which is rather hard for me as it means that I will soon leave America. However, it will not be the end of this year, for all my friendships and experiences here in America will always be cherished memories for me.

I should like to express a special appreciation to the students of Central with whom I have spent the most unforgetable year of my life.

Also my special thanks to all the teachers who have helped me a lot, to the busdriver, and to the cooks. Thank you again, everyone!

Jenny Coumou
(Foreign Exchange Student '62)

August 23, 1961, was an important date for many people—the students of Central, the Stebbins family and most of all, Jenny Coumou. This day was to begin for her the most exciting year of her life. Soon after she arrived, Jenny was greeted by the Student Council at the Stebbins' home. This was followed by swimming parties and pajama parties, at which she was introduced to pizza, subs, bermudas and the American style of dancing.

The first day of school, Jenny was, of course, very excited but soon found that people are the same everywhere. Central students were all eager to meet her and help in any way.

At Halloween Jenny proved herself to be a typical teenager, but later ran into a little difficulty with the twist.

The entire year was one of activity, learning, and fun. Jenny portrayed the Madonna in the Christmas assembly, went Christmas shopping in New York, had her first airplane trip to visit her relatives in New Jersey, ice skated, played on the volleyball team and introduced her foster family to "oliebollen" a type of Dutch cookies.

One of the things she enjoyed most was speaking to service clubs, church groups, at various school clubs and in assembly. In this way she received an opportunity to show films and tell about her country, Holland, and also give her impression of America, which is quite favorable.

All in all, it was a wonderful experience, not only for Jenny, but also for Central High and the Stebbins family.

THE PROWLER

Saylor, B. Scheaffer, L. Ambler, S. Gates, W. Kauffman.

The school newspaper, The PROWLER, started out on a small scale only a few years ago. During this year the newspaper and the staff has expanded a large degree, and has produced one paper a month plus an exciting literary addition during the month of February. The paper was printed by an outside publisher and the literary addition was put together by the students. Both publications consisted of articles written by junior and senior high school students.

I'm sure that nobody will ever forget the PROWLER'S float in the homecoming parade with their own candidate for queen, William Wertz. The old car in which he was riding didn't look much better than he did in his faded green gown, mop-like hair, and face of a side-show girl during the twenties.

On November 17 and April 13, the newspaper staff sponsored dances. The dance of November 17, was an "Oldies but Goodies" dance. During the evening all old songs from the last few years were spun by the surprise disc jockey. Both dances turned out to be very successful.

With Richard Smith as the editor and Mr. Deeg as the advisor, how could the newspaper help but to be outstanding.

OUR

"HILLBILLY WEDDIN"

On the night of March 18, 1961, proud Junior actors and actresses presented the comedy, "Hillbilly Weddin."

The story reveals the problems that Maw and Paw Belsnickle have with their six unmarried daughters. Juney Lou, the youngest daughter, has her future husband all lined up; but Maw decides she can't marry until daughters number one and two have caught their mates. Naturally, these two are about the homeliest girls in the valley.

Soon after Maw's decision, Ronald Maxwell and his rich aunt enter into the story, and then the fun begins. Both dirty Ceelie and Bonnie Mae, the two older daughters, decide that he's the man they want; but Ronald doesn't quite share their feelings. After hearing about this, the male inhabitants of the valley fake out a feud to scare the handsome gentleman away. Paw gets a similar idea, his motive being to get a husband for Ceelie while their minds are on something else. Of course, as all good stories end; the plot turns into confusion but with happy endings for all.

PLAYS

"YOU, THE JURY"

The Seniors presented a three act courtroom drama, "You, The Jury," on the nights of November 2 and 4, 1961.

The entire play revolved around the trial of Barbara Scott. The case of Barbara Scott was defended by her pretty lawyer-sister, Edith, and prosecuted by the forceful young Allan Woodward. The case seemed hopeless at the start and Allan relentlessly built up the case against her, including her professed confession of guilt. The turning point of the play was reached when Sheila Vincent gave her testimony that she saw Barbara in almost the very act of firing the fatal shot. Barbara's chances seemed very slim, but Edith refused to give up. She finally was rewarded when help arrived from a totally unexpected source.

Throughout the play the action keeps driving onward, building in conflict and tension until the exciting climax is reached.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

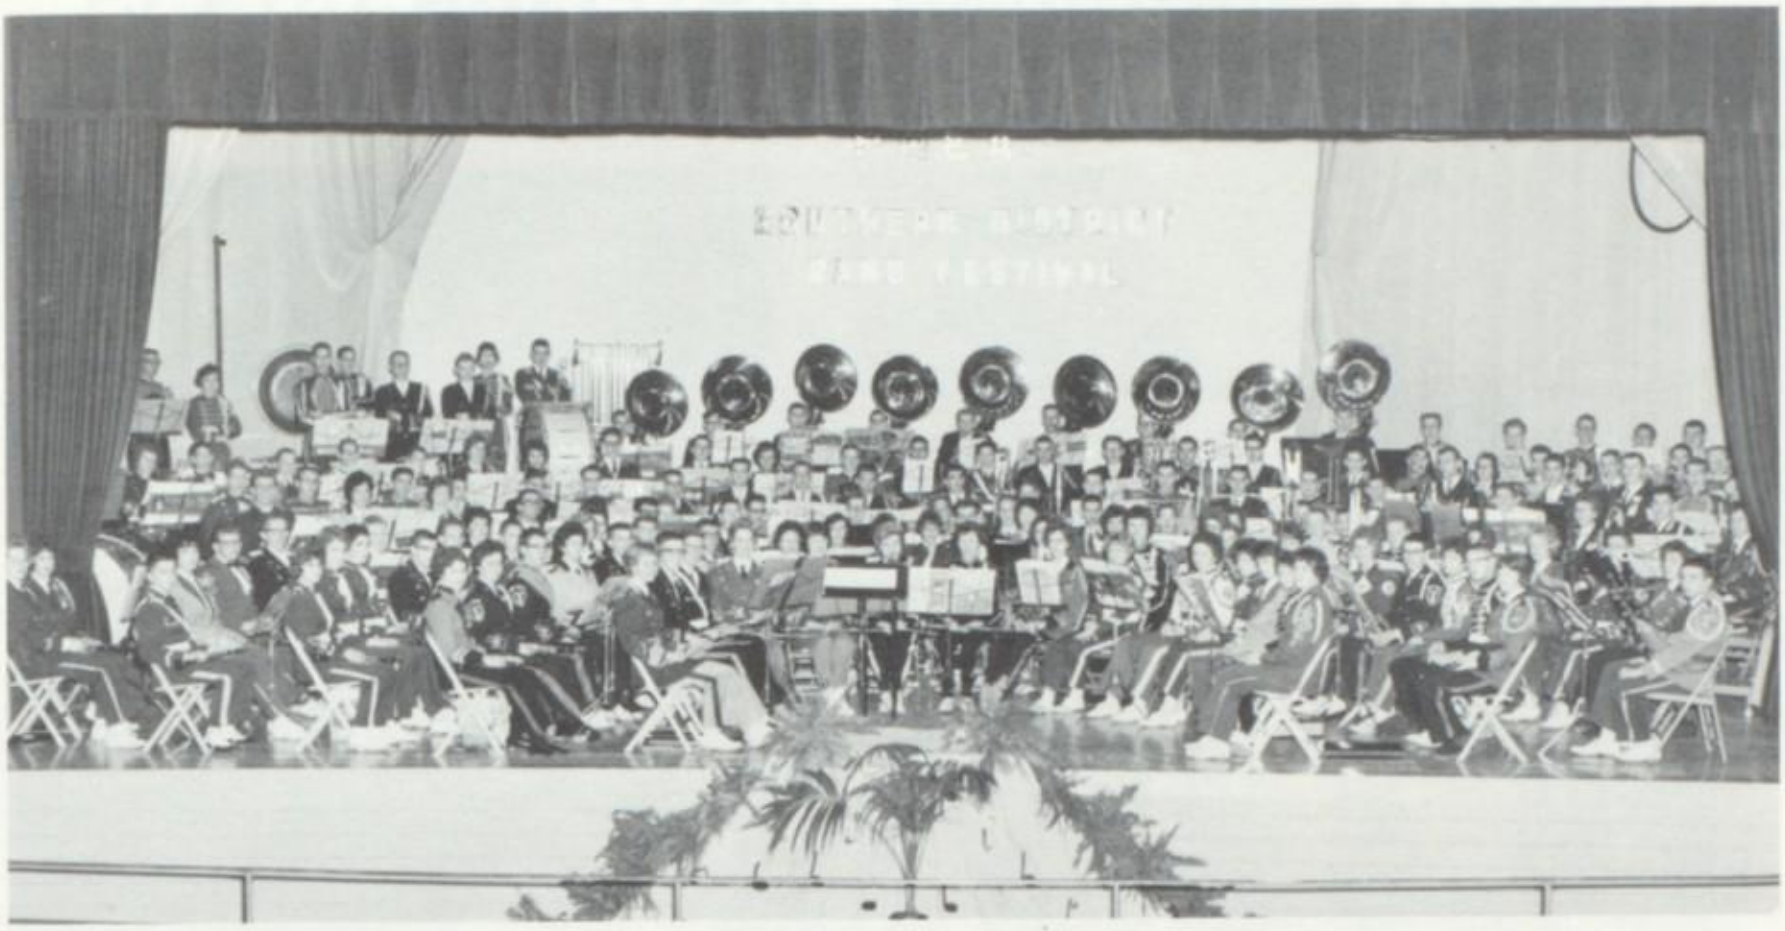
D. A. R. ESSAY CONTEST

All seniors participated in the annual essay contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. This year's title was, "A Day in Pennsylvania during the Civil War." The three Central essays chosen for entry in the contest were those written by George Hiendel, Morgan Riley, and Dick Smith. Congratulations! We hope your work and ingenuity will bring you high honors.

HIRE THE HANDICAPPED CONTEST

Central is proud to give special recognition to Judith Stebbins for her outstanding essay in the thirteenth annual Hire the Handicapped Contest. Judi placed fourth in the county competition with her essay entitled, "Jobs for the Handicapped—A Community Challenge," for which she received $5 at a luncheon held for the winners. We extend to Judi sincere congratulations.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT BAND FESTIVAL



Richard E. Strange, guest conductor.

Central High School was indeed honored to host the Southern District Band Festival on January 18, 19, and 20. Guest conductor Richard E. Strange, from Carnegie Institute of Technology led the one hundred and fifty two students of Southern District schools, eight of whom were Central students, through a well-integrated performance. Very receptive audiences enjoyed a briskly paced program highlighted by tuba soloist, Harvey Phillips who, among other accomplishments, plays first tuba with the Goldman Band. These concerts did much to promote interest in school music in the community, and to give special recognition to these students of outstanding music ability.

The annual school project was started at the assembly where Mr. Yoder tried to spark our enthusiasm. Our goal was $3,000 and was to be reached in two weeks. Unfortunately, we only sold $1,649.90 worth of magazines.

The campaign was somewhat different this year. A television was given to the person whose name was pulled from a box. To be eligible, you had to sell $50 or more. Other prizes were radios, a telephone for one year, a watch and the regular candy bars and smaller prizes.

The two high salesmen were respectively, Rebecca Lloyd and Katherine Lehigh, with only $.07 difference in their amount of sales.

A tense, still silence fell over the auditorium as each of the five candidates and their escorts slowly made their way down the aisle to the stage where the final decision was to be made. All heads turned to stare at these lovely young women selected, one of which to be chosen for the honor of Homecoming Queen.

One by one the candidates were presented to the audience by the master of ceremonies, Mike Lentz, and a bouquet of carnations was given to each of the girls by one of the cheerleaders. The climax came when only two were remaining and Bonita Bear received her bouquet and Linda Wales was escorted to the throne.

A crown for her head and a kiss for her cheek were given to our queen by the co-captains of the football team, Sam Landis and George Sipe. At the end of the ceremony the cheerleaders cheered, and Mr. Craley and Coach Stauffer gave a pep talk for the game the following day.

COMING

In spite of the steady rain a large crowd turned out on that Saturday October 14, to witness the homecoming game between the visiting Wildcats of Dallastown and the Central High Panthers. The field was a morass of mud as the visitors kicked off to start this memorable game. The contest was hard fought and despite the courageous efforts of our Panthers we went down to defeat. The final score, 13-6, was indicative of the well played game.

Preceding the game was the annual Homecoming Parade featuring ten floats, the school band, and the queen and her court. This year the Senior class received the trophy for the outstanding float.

The Homecoming Dance, appropriately entitled Mystic Moments, was a rousing success. Part of its success can be properly traced to the splendid music supplied by "The Wonderers." All activities surrounding our Homecoming were sponsored by The Student Council and The Varsity Clubs.

"Comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb." This is a description of the month of March. It also fits the 1961-62 football team of Central High. The Panthers went into the season thirty-eight in number and beat Kennard-Dale.

Central's growling Panthers were set back a step when they came in contact with possibly the biggest rival of the season, York Suburban. Another big rival was Littlestown. But for the first time in the history of Central High, the Panthers clawed the Rockets. After this game the team had high hopes for the Homecoming game the following week.

But when that big day came, it rained; and the backfield of Central came down with a serious case of "fumbleitis" and lost the Homecoming game. Then to go out like a lamb, Central handed York Catholic their first victory of the season.

Coach Joe Stauffer, however, can be proud that he produces an All-Conference quarterback, Sam Landis, who also received honorable mention in the District.

BASKETBALL

The varsity basketball team, coached by Mr. Eugene Sureth, came up with another good season. Although the team ended with a 12-4 league record, they did not win any league honors.

This year's team was composed of eight seniors, one junior, and one sophomore. The four loses came against Spring Grove (2), West York (1) and Northeastern (1).

After getting off to a slow start, losing their first two games, the team began to play good ball. They moved from dead last to tie for third place with Northeastern. The tie was broken when the Central High Panthers took on the Northeastern Bobcats and defeated them to take over the third spot in the Western Division.

The Panthers still had a slim chance of regaining the Division Title, but first had to defeat West York and Spring Grove, two very good teams. The Panthers got past the Bulldogs of West York in overtime and had their sights set for the League Leaders, Spring Grove. The Panthers stayed within two points of Spring Grove but in the second half they were out played by a strong team.

Before league competition started, the team participated in the Susquehannock Holiday tournament and came out on top. They defeated Red Lion and Susquehannock, the host of the tournament, to take the first place trophy for the tournament.

Rah! Rah! Central. The Central High School cheerleaders are to be congratulated for the fine performance they turned in this year. The culmination and crowning achievement of their labors was the reward of new uniforms, furnished by a local organization which felt that their efforts deserved some special reward.

It was an unhappy circumstance that our girls lost the cheerleading contest by a very slim margin, but their work, in all kinds of weather and for all school activities, more than made up for this disappointment.

Their efforts during pep rallies had much to do with the school spirit carried into the various school activities. Your efforts are appreciated. Keep up the good work.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL

Mr. Ronald Beckmeyer, Coach.

Mr. Ronald Beckmeyer was proud of his 1960-1961 volleyball team as they took second place in the District Three Play-Off by winning seven out of ten games.

The Panthers met Mount Penn and beat them 15-2 and 15-11. Then they went on to meet Spring Grove. Again Central won out with scores of 15-12 and 16-14.

Still another victory was won as the Panthers met their toughest opponent of the Play-Off, York High. The Panthers romped the first game, lost the second, and won the set in the third. The scores were 15-1, 5-15, and 15-2.

To win the county championship, Central defeated West York, 21-14.

In the District Final Central lost two games in a row to York High, 15-10 and 15-6.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

The 1961 volleyball season finally arrived in late January with Miss Rachael Trimpey as coach. The team drilled hard on strategy, spiking, driving, wrist action, set-ups, and serves. Their hard practices were not in vain, for these girls won the York County League Championship.

The team's capable co-captains were Marilyn Stover and Diane Eichelberger, who led the team to victory in all their division games. The junior varsity squad had an undefeated season.

The high tension and excitement of the play-off games soon arrived. Central played Suburban High School for the championship at Dover High School. Our girls took the title by winning two out of three games. Central scored fifteen points in each game, while Suburban scored eleven points in the first game and thirteen points in the second game. Central now proudly displays the title of 1961 York County Girls' Volleyball Champs!

Miss Rachael Trimpey, Coach.

A young team, with only two seniors, represented the body-benders of Central High for 1961-62. However, they made a standing mark on the scoreboard with a 6-7 record.

Along the way there were outstanding performances by many of the boys. Keith Trout was undefeated until the sectional tournament. David Leaman was undefeated in his own weight class. Richard Baylor, Melvin Blouse and Dennis McGlaughlin competed as semi-finalists in the sectional tournament. John Gentzler and Dean Kauffman were also seated at the sectional tournament.

The coach, William Kralowetz, is proud of this year's team; and is looking forward to an even better season next year.

"Go get 'em!"

This year's hockey team, coached by Miss Rachael Trimpey, was composed mainly of tenth and eleventh graders.

During the months of October and November, these girls worked hard at learning the skills of hockey. They practiced dribbling, passing and driving.

Central was host for a hockey "Play Day," which was held November eleventh. Teams from all of the schools in the county were invited, and over one hundred girls participated in this event.

On the brisk morning of the eleventh, the teams warmed up on the field. Each team played until it was eliminated. The two teams with the most wins, West York and Central, played for the championship. West York ranked first in the competition while Central placed a close second.

With the tremendous interest our girls have shown in hockey during this past season, this newly introduced game at Central will be a very popular sport in the coming years.

TRACK

The track team found themselves undermanned and so found it difficult to win a track meet. There were approximately 13 boys out for the team. Each boy tried his best to win, but the competition was just too great.

The track team, coached by Mr. Myers, can be proud of being on the same team with Brian Young. Young, one of the fastest runners in York County, did an outstanding job in his senior year. It cannot be said that Young did all the work, for all the other boys worked just as hard.

The track record for the team was one win against five setbacks. The lone win came against Spring Grove, 57½ to 52½. The track scores were:

Central 24	West York 83
Central 47	Kennard Dale 58
Central 26	Dallastown 83
Central 57½	Spring Grove 52½
Central 50	Red Lion 59
Central 42	Suburban 67

The track team was also invited to take part in the West York Relays and the Sheppard Relays.

First row: C. Burdette, J. Weaver. Second row: K. Hinkle, B. Mitchell, D. Simmons, G. Myers, G. Deeg, Assistant coach.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The Central High Cross-Country team, coached by Mr. Myers and his assistant Mr. Deeg, was composed of six boys; Don Simmons, George Myers, Clyde Burdette, Bob Mitchell, Jerry Weaver, and Kenneth Hinkle.

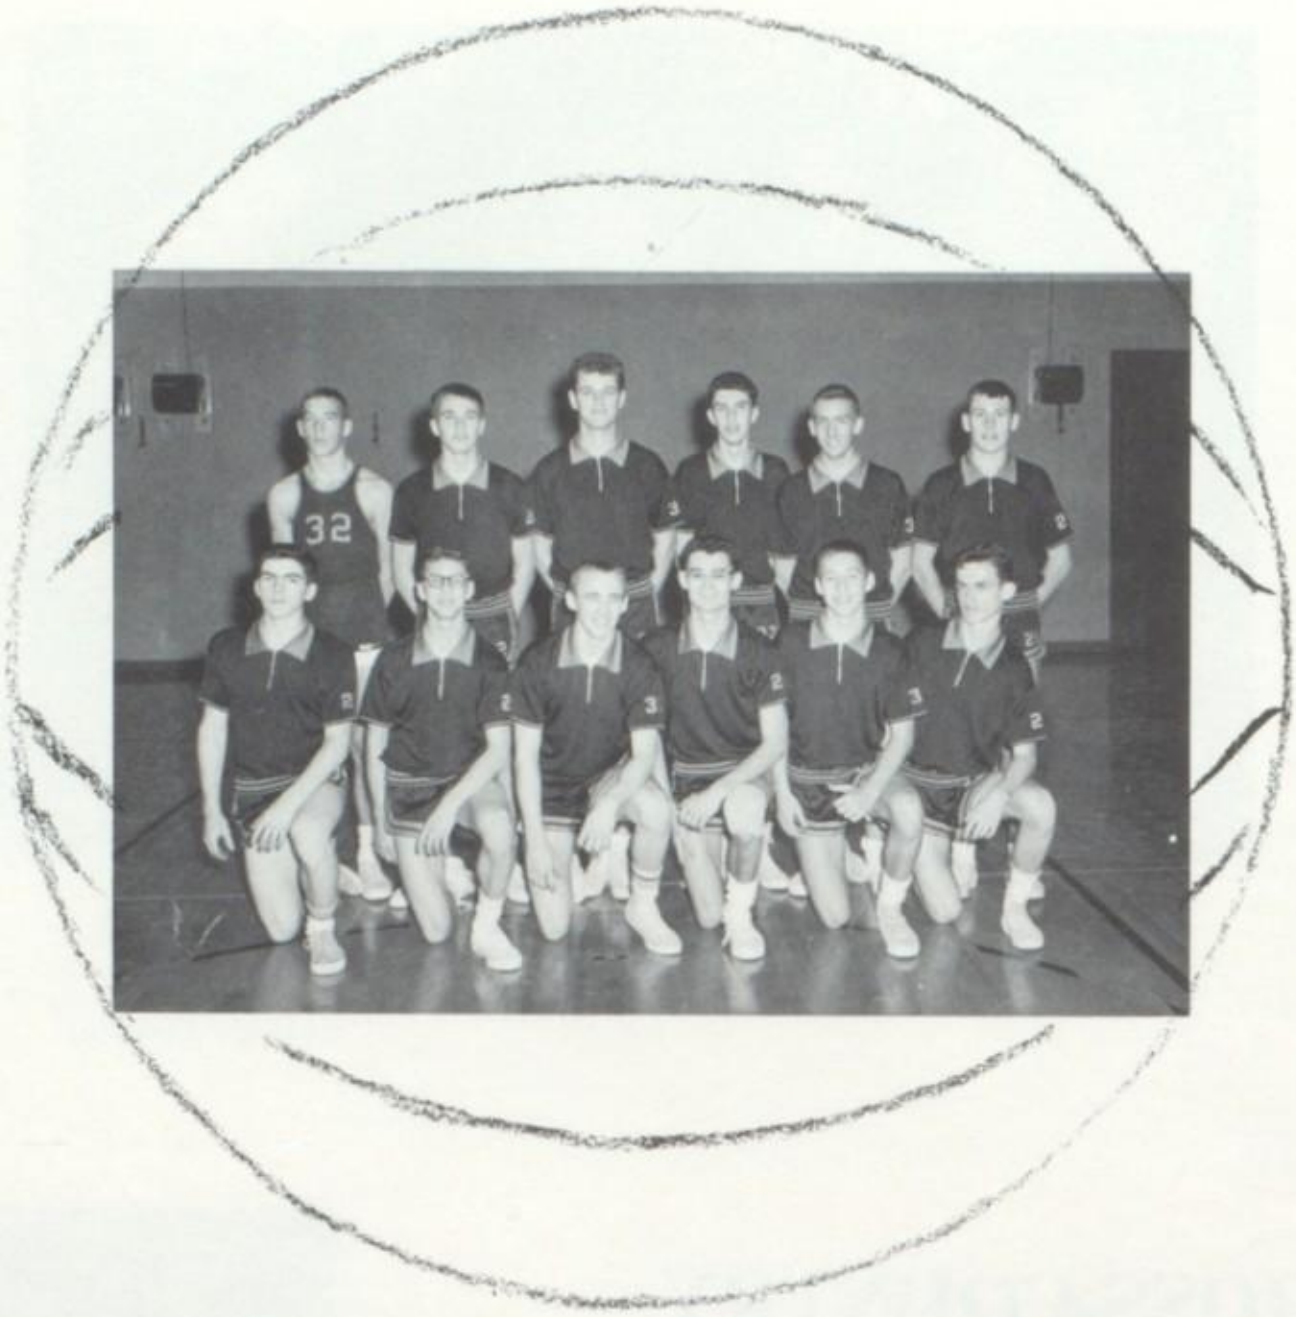
These boys practiced very hard during the few weeks before they ran in non-league competition. Although these boys were only able to win one meet against Red Lion, they made good showings in their other encounters.

Next year Central will compete in the York County Cross-Country League which is still in its beginning stages. This league will be composed of five teams; West York, Dallastown, Eastern, Red Lion, and Central.

Many thanks should go to coach Robert Myers and his assistant George Deeg for giving of their free time to train the boys. Congratulations to this year's team for a job well done and good luck to next year's squad.

Coming down the home stretch.

"Practice makes perfect."



First row: R. Rizzio, G. Desenberg, R. Miller, R. Hykes, M. Poff, K. Hinkle.
Second row: J. Weaver, J. Gabert, B. Hedrick, G. Drescher, T. Beakler, J. Taurins.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Mr. Donald Poet, coach.

The Junior Varsity squad, coached by Donald Poet, had a good season. They ended up tie for second place with Spring Grove, with a 12-4 record. Their losses came against Spring Grove (2), Dallastown, and Kennard-Dale.

The J. V.'s were quite impressive in many of their games and will go on to better seasons than what they have had. The team was lead by the fine shooting of Jim Gabert and Bob Miller, and good rebounding by Tom Beakler.

It is sure to be a promising season next year for Mr. Suereth. The J. V.'s of this year are sure to play a big part in the winning team of next year. It will require a lot of hard work; but with the fine record they boasted this year, you can look forward to another championship team.

Next year, along with some returning J. V. players, Mr. Poet will have a fine Junior High team coming up to join the ranks.

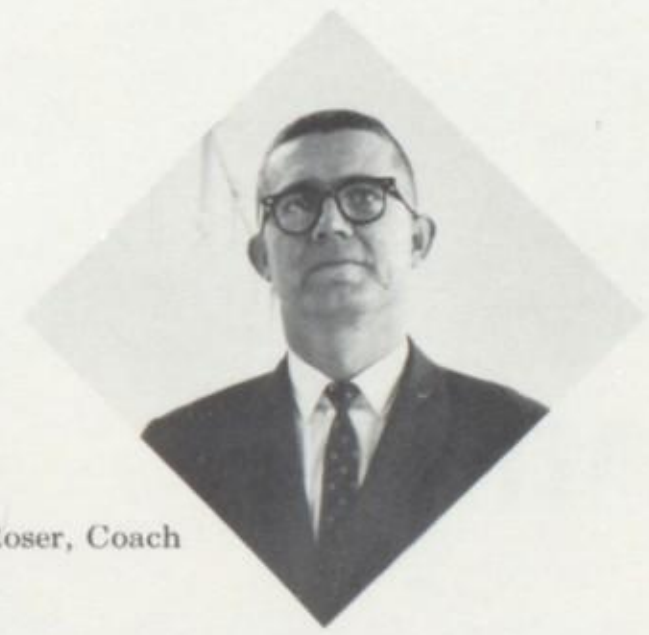
BASEBALL

First row: R. McGinnis, Manager; R. Dehoff, W. Kauffman, J. Sleeger, A. Corwell, D. Kaley, C. Brant, C. Thorp. Second row: T. Walters, D. Decker, D. Irwin, G. Sipe, B. Hykes, R. Hedrick, L. Mundis, G. Fitz. Third row: S. Koons, Manager; J. Strobeck, M. Ruby, M. Bean, B. Reigh, J. Shriver, M. Deihl, C. Kann, D. Roser, Coach.

Mr. Daniel Roser, as coach of a young ball team, produced a team for the future. This year they did not do so well in the seasonal running. The team's record was two wins and eight losses.

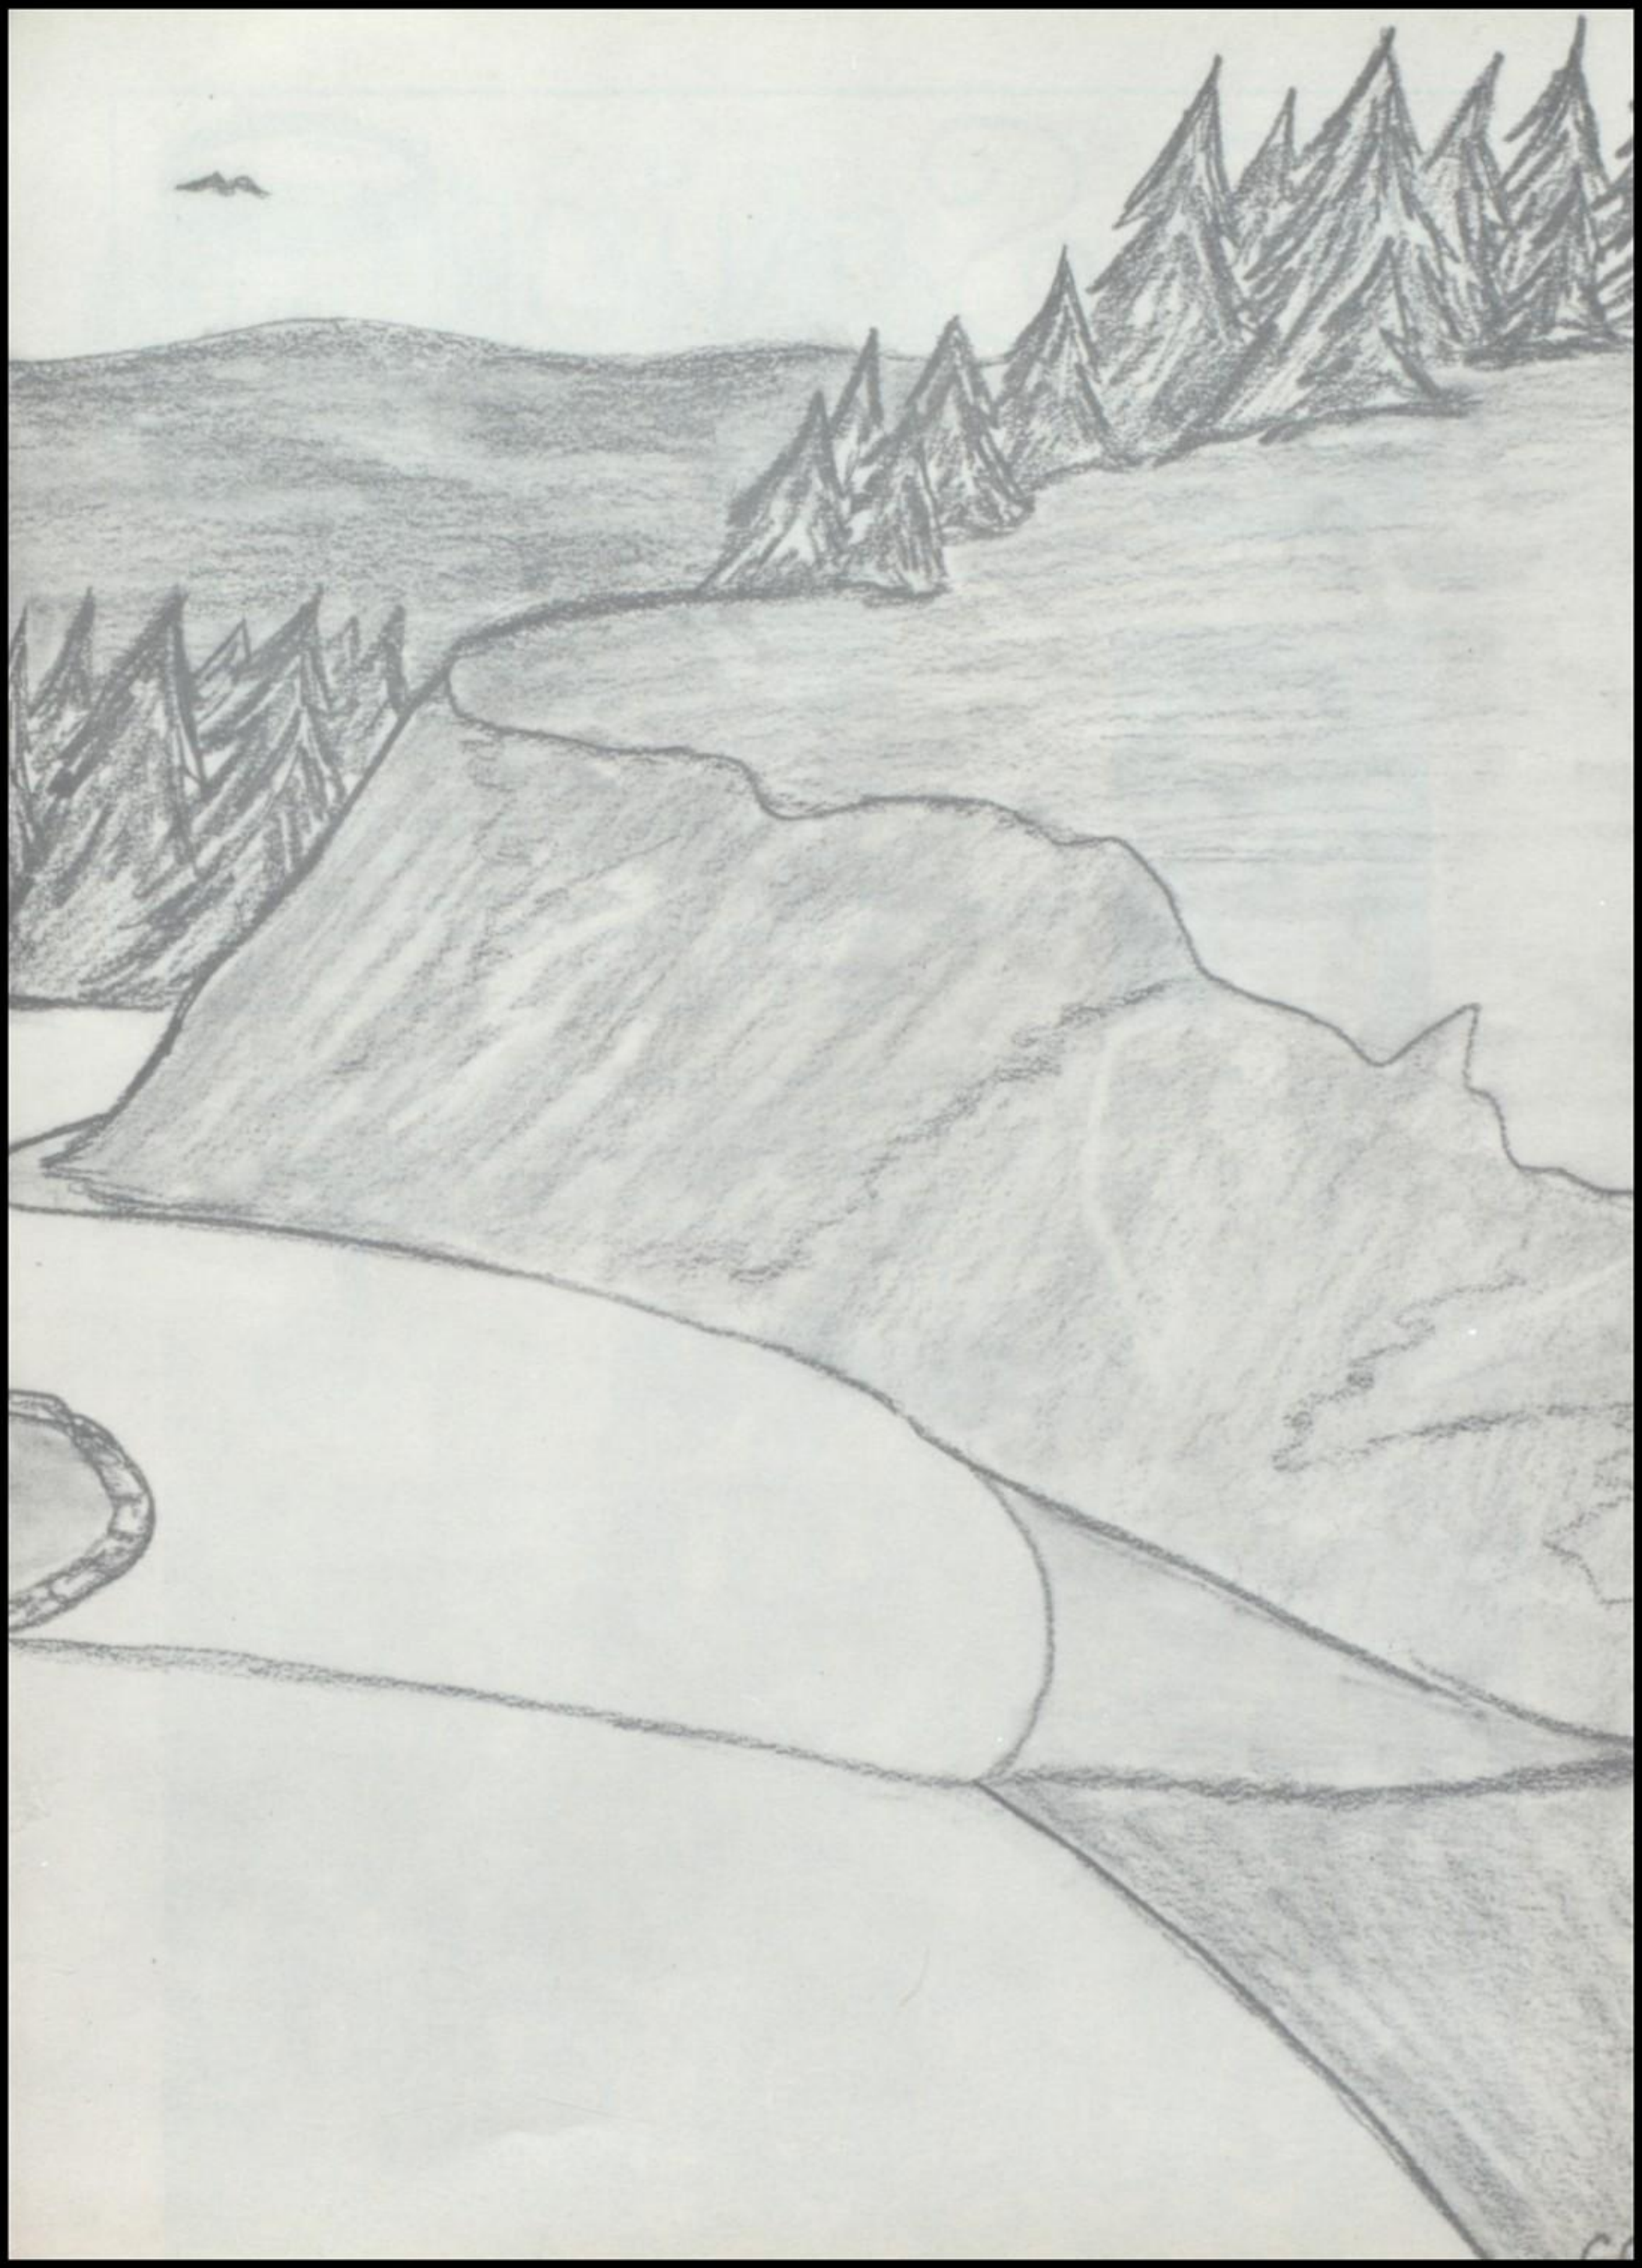
There were only two seniors and two juniors playing actively. The rest of the team was made-up of sophomores.

The team cleaned two victories over Dover, 8 to 3 and 3 to 0. The latter game was a well-pitched, no-hitter thrown by Robert Hedrick.



Mr. Roser, Coach

MUSIC



SENIOR BAND

"Mr. Mac"

The Senior Band is the largest instrumental group at Central. During the football season, these students could be found out on the football field almost every day practicing formations under the direction of Mr. MacFarland.

Along with their support at the football games, in their new uniforms they provided music for assemblies, marched in various parades, toured the elementary schools and held the annual Spring Concert. With all these activities they were also hosts for the Southern District Band Festival.

CHORUSES

TENTH GRADE CHORUS

The ability of these fine chorus members to read music will help to achieve their goal as a near-perfect group. We are very glad that these will be the people who will be the future Senior Chorus.

SENIOR CHORUS
SENIOR MEMBERS

We are very proud of our Senior Chorus here at Central High. They have not only performed for the special Christmas assemblies, but helped to make the operetta, "Mississippi Melody," a great success last year.

The best of luck to these seniors as they begin their journey through life.

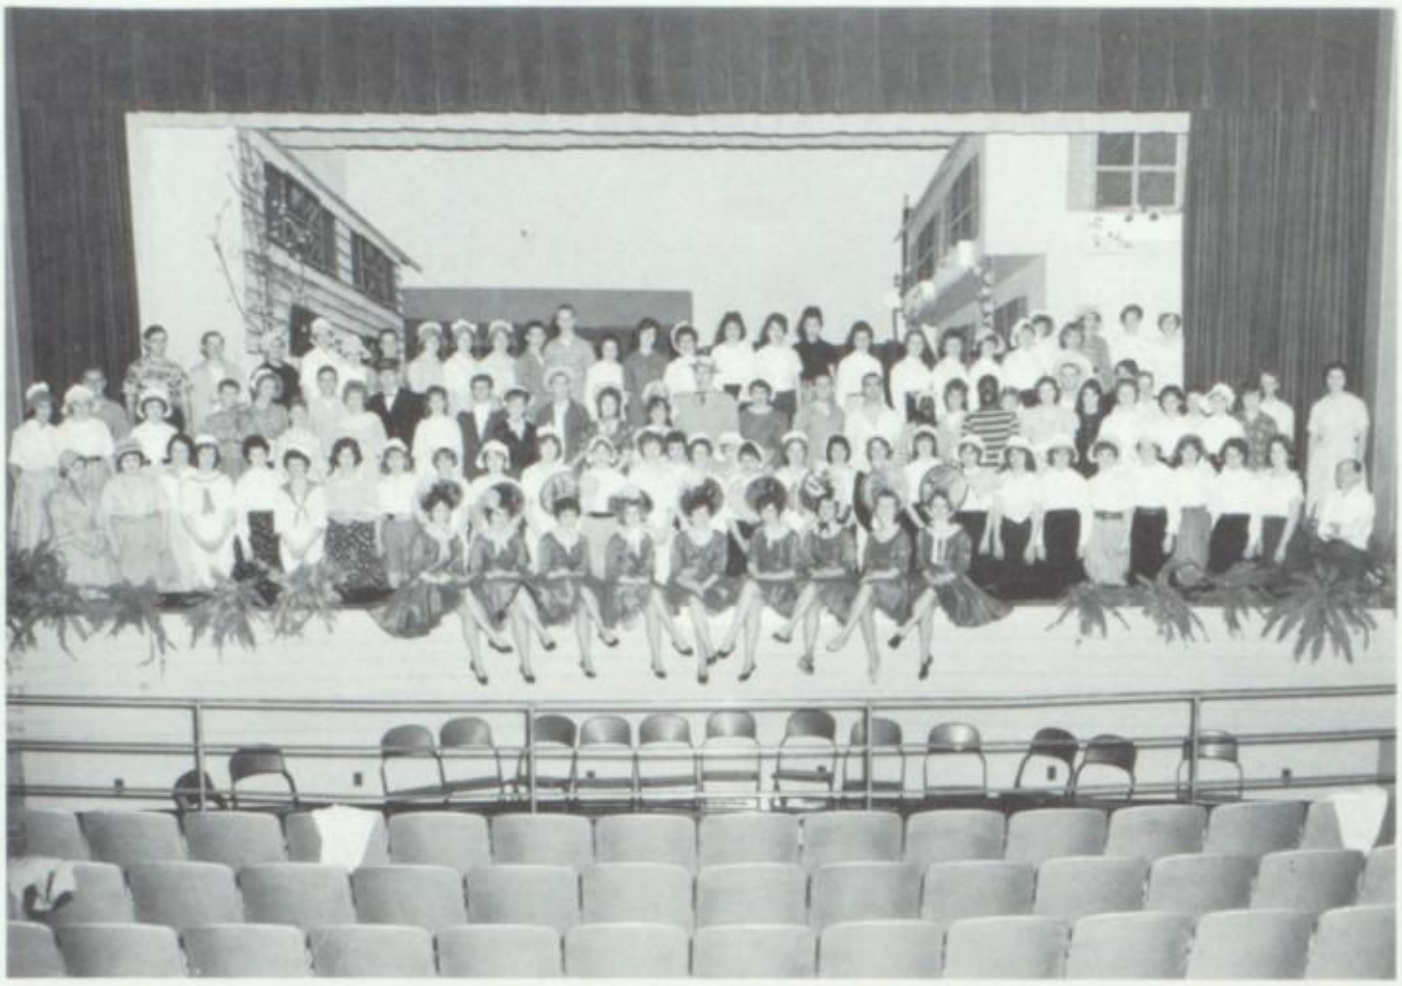
JUNIOR MEMBERS

The Juniors have been a great asset to the Senior Chorus this year. With their help, the chorus has had much success with all their programs. Some of the programs that they have participated in are the special Christmas assembly, the operetta, and the unforgettable graduation program.



MISSISSIPPI MELODY

Our story begins as a normal day in the backyards of Aunt Polly and Mrs. Harper, with the also normal over-the-fence conversation about two major problems; their boys, Tom and Joe. The boys then come on the scene and naturally have been doing something they shouldn't have which is quickly discovered through the help of Tom's half, rather prissy brother, Sidney. For Sidney, of course, is a good little boy.

Tom, as you might guess, once again tricks his friends into helping him whitewash the fence, while he tries to impress Becky Thatcher with his better qualities such as a sore toe, balancing a straw on the end of his nose, and the prettiest piece of blue glass you ever did see.

Real excitement is in order the next day when someone murders Dr. Robinson. To add to the confusion, Tom, Joe, and Huckleberry Finn, a rather disliked and misunderstood character, decide to run away to be pirates.

Naturally, the story had a happy ending. The boys came back, Dr. Robinson's murder was solved, and to top everything off, Widow Douglas adopted Huck Finn.

Special thanks go to Mr. Warfield, Director and Sue Holtzinger and Pat Orr, Student Directors. Also thank you to the members of the Senior Chorus for their fine assistance. Through the efforts of a lot of people, "Mississippi Melody" was a huge success.

Everyone works hard at an Editorial meeting.

Our sincere "thanks" to George Yost, Blatner's diligent photographer.

THE CHIEF

When we first started the task of putting together our memory book, it seemed as though all our problems would never be solved; and that we would never see the finished product. After we got started, though, things seemed to fall into place; and producing our yearbook became a pleasurable and very enjoyable task.

Naturally it took a lot of work, as does any job; but it was a special kind of work, teamwork. Without the cooperation of everyone concerned, this yearbook could not have been possible. But my job as editor was made easier because I had the "cream of the crop" as my Editorial Staff. I would like to express my gratitude by giving a special "thanks" to each member of the Editorial Staff, who did a job that will never be equaled; and to my two associate editors, Donna Runkle and Kay Stapelkamp, whose help was indispensable.

I know I speak for each member of the staff when I convey a well-deserved "thank you" to all the others who helped make possible the successful publication of our yearbook. Our thanks go to all the people at Blatners, our photographer, and especially to George Yost, who spent many long hours taking innumerable pictures for us; to Printing Plate Craftsmen, our printer, whose help, guidance, and patience were very much appreciated; to Kurtz Brothers, our binder, and their representative, Mr. C. David Ridgway, whose cooperation and ideas were greatly appreciated; to the Business Staff under the able leadership of Lois Lucabaugh, Business Manager; Sam Landis, Advertising Manager; and Peggy Miller, Circulation Manager; and to their advisor, Mr. Craley, all of whom worked hard and diligently at the thankless task of raising the money so very much needed for a project such as this; and last but not least, to our advisor, Mr. Fauth, who gave unselfishly of his time and knowledge without which we could never have produced the book you are now looking at. I speak for all of us when I say "thanks" for putting up with all our crazy ideas and seemingly fantastic whims which you probably thought would never come to be. Without your patience and guidance, this yearbook could never have been.

With all our problems solved, and our yearbook at last a reality, I can say it has been a wonderful experience that I will never forget. The friendship of each member of the staff will be a cherished memory for me. So, it is with pride and pleasure that I present to you the 1962 edition of the Central High Panther, the memoirs of "Our Gang."

Lois Lucabaugh worked extra hard as Business Manager.
